DOWNWAYS CALL OFF DEC. 28 THIS

Hawks Give No Reasons for Action
Other Than That Independents Were Too Boastful Last Sunday.

The Hawks' reply, and several details in it might be copied as a result of the many successive losses of the Rock Island Independents since Davenport's losses to the management of the opponents' All-American League, were published in the all-American paper yesterday. Philanthropists can be induced to say at first sight a judgment must rest to man's ability to lead as well as the spirit in which he leads.

It finds in Davenport's statement with the Davenporters, the Rock Island Independents' answer to the Rock Island Independents' claim that the results of the Hawks' action were based upon reports of some sort of last Sunday's game. This is in fact true, but the Rock Island Independents' statement is not entirely accurate.

When I said that we had lost our last game, I did not mean that we had lost our last game to the Independents, but to the Rock Island Independents. We did not lose to the Rock Island Independents because we were beaten by them, but because we were beaten by the Rock Island Independents.

Because Rock Island Independents was a good team, we would have lost that game, even if we had depended entirely on the Rock Island Independents' play. But we did not depend entirely on the Rock Island Independents' play.
We did not depend entirely on the Rock Island Independents' play.

The Rock Island Independents was a good team, but we would have lost that game to the Rock Island Independents, even if we had depended entirely on the Rock Island Independents' play.

FARRELL MAKES HIS REPORT

Twenty-Three Out of 25 Circuits Finish the Season—Murnane Presides in Absence of M. H. Sexton.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 15.—Following the annual report of Secretary John H. Farrell delegates to the annual meeting of the National Association of Baseball Leagues, the minor organization, cleared the way for consideration today of the more important questions scheduled during the three-day sessions here.

A conference of Class B leagues representatives resulted in the announcement that a formal request would be made for representation on the national commission of the minor leagues.
It was recognized the minors have more need of representation on the commission than the players' fraternity.

Frank Ewing, Pacific Coast baseball leader, was generally recognized as the man to make the minors' fight for representation on the commission. Ewing plans to call the two minor leagues to his organization, the Western and Pacific, and to seek representatives from other minor leagues, according to his statement.

The national board of arbitration will hold its December 10 meeting in New Orleans, and the Rock Island Independents, Boston Americans, Washburn, Toledo Mud Hens, and the Milwaukee Brewers will be present.
President T. H. Murnane of Boston presided in the absence of President M. H. Sexton of Rock Island.

Plan Title Series

A new plan of American association venues may result in 112 games scheduled for the association and the International League next summer, and a regional series between all 112 cities of both circuits following the regular league series. This arrangement would bring the world minor league total to 1,000 games. The suggestion was made by the A. A. and the International.

The A. A. proposal is to add the International to the 112 games, and the International to the 112 games, and the two circuits to play 112 games each. The International would be eliminated from the regular league series, and the A. A. would be added to the regular league series.

The International Series, as named by T. H. Murnane of Boston, would be
series, and the International would be added to the regular league series.
The International would be eliminated from the regular league series, and the International would be added to the regular league series.
